The sword radiates and powerful celestial aura. The hilt is made of all rainbow “Infinity Crystal” which charges the blade through the aura of the warrior. Lastly, the jewel at the bottom of the hilt can activate certain spells (Based on Garga Blade Mage). Based on Fabricated Divine Sword, Galgano Replica (Buddyfight) Except made of the infinity crystal blade and etc. The sides of the blade can shift activating the flame aura blade. Based on Fantasy Games now including Skylanders and Nutcracker and 4 realms.

Ghasem/Ankh/Prime: Powerful puffle monsters of another universe timeline with similar powers of current puffle monsters but different with different abilities and different forms of magic. This timeline was created when the magic book of puffle monsters traveled back in time to the time when Redison still had a lab in Canada (Riverbend) world but as he was a genius, using the data from the book and some magic and science as well as energy from the mysterious galaxy rocks (the rocks from the Aquarium in Mall of America) he created the powerful core medals which would have the power to create life on another world for terraforming habitats. Each core medal was made for each attack, spell, and ability to exist in the Puffle monster world all creates eventually new forms of magic through the spells, attacks, and abilities of each magic element as bases and ancestors to these new powers. This then created another universe timeline. Soon after though, the magical puffles with these new powers creates a new civilization advancing magic and technology being far more advanced now than the puffle monsters because of the book and the knowledge. Eventually, the book returns to the present day puffle monster timeline which in the end, forms a rift tearing the sky apart which reveals and upside-down view of the other timeline. Prime world is ruled by Blazing Sol Ankh Sabre Deity, Fenix Prime. (Basically same design as Fenix Nexant but with blazing flame rings instead of magic swords floating behind his magic swords). These prime puffle monsters have powerful abilities similar yet different compared to the puffle monsters of the current timeline. Ex: Strong Armed flash (Move in puffle monster timeline) evolves into other varieties of moves as well as creating a new realm and habitat for those puffle monsters. Both timelines are fused and ruled by the ultimate form combining Fenix Nexant and Fenix Prime, evolving Fenix into Perfect Blazing Soul Utopia Sabre deity, Infinite Blaze Ultradeity Fenix Nexant Prime. (Based on Jackknife dragon Stragrite the X, a 3rd white eye forming the infinite flames and combining the blazing sol rings and Sanctuary Sabre rings and the form of Fenix Nexant with a rainbow fire erupting from the sanctuary sabre rings.)

MANAS (Magnum Altair Nova Ace Strike): Powerful puffle monsters created by the power of the stars that fell from the tree of the stars which landed in the form of magical crystalline orbs. These puffle monsters have eyes and bodies similar to Kamen rider Necrom (the puffles do at least). These powers were formed after the fusion of the 2 worlds (Prime and MU) creating a new variety of these new monsters. Ex: Chain MU attacks to skip turn and restrict opponent, Chain Prime uses chains to attack and stun, Chain MANAS attacks with amount of health it has times 2 for damage, steals life, and restricts next turn. Use MANAS Share (If other MANAS puffle monsters in the area, share ability with other gaining unique combo attack or benefit), and MANAS boost (Basically equip the soul of any MANAS monster and attach it to another MANAS monster or normal monster for a powerful boost and soul share (Stat increases but both monsters are knocked out if out)). Ruled by MANAS Omnistrike Sabre Deity, Fenix Supernova (Design based on Bal Soleil, Buster Excalibur, Gundam 00 Sky, AGE-IIMG Gundam AGEII Magnum, and star winning gundam real mode)

Gamedeus: Powerful puffle monsters from the infinite game universe. These puffle monsters have unique skill sets like game characters with different weapons, powers, and items from each game. Their realm is basically the puffle monster universe if set to be a video game, with habitats and realms of all elements including some like bubble zone or construction site, or places from other games (Super Smash Bros U and Super Smash Bros Ultimate, Starfox, Super Mario Odyssey, Super Mario 3d Land, New Super Mario bros U, Lego Universe, Xenos, Minecraft Jeracraft, Terraria, Kamen rider Ex-Aid, Dungeons and Dragons, Magic, the Gathering, League of Legends, Hearthstone, World of Warcraft,). Taferi/ Teferi/ Phyrexian: 11/21/18 dream of elemental magic and mysterious symbols (the coins with a maze like design on the coin each representing an ancient code for an ability/item/magic for each color). Born of the ancient tree in the heavens, the grand infinity tree of puffle monsters. These powerful puffle monsters live in the celestial realm of the startree known as the celestial planes where everything on earth is fantasized to be creatures of their own (the puffle monsters) each with unique moves and abilities. Basically, all moves (Z-Moves, Impacts, and normal monster attacks), abilities, items, foods, spells, places, and magic all became puffle monsters each with unique powers creating brand new varieties of these new puffle monsters. Based on Fantasy games now including Mortal engines, Kamen rider, Magic the Gathering, and Dungeons and Dragons. Ruled by Infinite Empyrial Phyrexian Dimension Utopia Sabre Deity, Grand Fenix Taferi. Symbol based on symbol on shield of Cho-Z Achilles.

Faux: Magical powerful mysterious puffle monsters who live in the roots of the star tree. As the Taferi live in the celestial realm of the star tree, these mysterious puffle monsters live in the roots of the tree in between the worlds. These puffle monsters control a powerful magic known as Aether which is an ancient form of magic that stems and grows into Mana which forms the basis and fabrics of magic. Also, this magic is used as the basis in summoning monsters as well. These puffle monsters have the powers kind of between normal monsers magic variety (fire) vs Taferi magic (ember) so Faux puffle monsters have magic like (flint strike) which will evolve into more varieties of magic in Taferi (up the star tree). This more primal form of magic unleashes a change in form in these puffle monsters as their hair flows and their aura and resonance bursts into a powerful form allowing them to utilize new attacks stronger than most monsters. As there are an extremely high variety of the Taferi monsters, there are just as a high number of different forms of Aether magic and species as each different species control a certain magic. These puffle monsters look like the corrupticorn dragon from Dragonvale with the rainbow fur thing. They are also based on Kamen Rider Fifteen. These puffle monsters are known for the unique ability known as Faux ability which is when the Aether level is extremely high, then they can activate a Zmove like ability unique to their form of magic. Ruled by Maximum Aether inferno sabre deity, Fenix Faux (Based on Kamen Rider Fifteen, Corrupticorn Dragon, and Cho-Z Spriggan avatar, as well as Garga, and Buster Excalibur).

Asterus/Xenos: Based on the Arcade computer game Xenos and the energy source from the game. Powerful puffle monsters enhanced by the power of the Xenos energy and given magic powers of monsters by the rainbow flames. The robots that Asterus (Main character) fights as well as Asterus himself are enhanced by new magic of the rainbow flames giving them unique abilities to battle. Others include all the units of Big Hero 6 Bot fight enhanced by the Xenos, and all the astroswitches from Kamen rider Fourze transformed into puffle monsters and enhanced by the Xenos. Each Asterus puffle monster uses MAX burst (Maximum Asterus Xenos) which unleashes a powerful boost in the stats, grants powerful attack, or powerful ability to shift the tides of the battle. Ruled by Infinity Xenos Nova Sabre, Fenix Asterus X while the astroswitch monsters are ruled by Cosmic Rocket Sabre, Fenix Fourze or Grand Sky blade, Fenix Jet Legion Molignir: Based on 11/24/18 dream of mysterious magic in order to enhance and enchant a fruit changing its color and abilities, Fruit Ninja (Blades and abilities), and Kamen Rider Gaim (all the fruit armors and powers, as well as dream with tornado fruit, Aquaberries (Blueberries), and Bombagranate/Cherry Pomagranate (a long time ago). Powerful nature puffle monsters with powerful magic abilities granted by the magical fruits of Molignir which grant unique abilities that the fruits grant as well as armors, weapons, and powerful magic. Ex: Archerfruit, Accelfruit, Shadowberry. All these puffle monsters follow the magic known as the Path of the Blossoms (on Parade). Ruled by Fruit basket Frenzy Sabre Shogun, Fenix Molignir (Based on Kamen Rider Zi-O Gaim Armor and Kamen rider Gaim Fruit basket arms) Astrologia/Zodiarc: Powerful magical puffle monsters with unique symbol magic and magic abilities.These puffle monsters live in the magical zodiarc realm where literally everything has a constellation for it. Each constellation is home to a unique form of magic which each puffle monster of that realm carries. There are as many puffle monsters (each with their own constellation symbol on them) as there are stars. Each constellation has a unique ability that only that constellation has and these puffle monsters live in the grand infinite realm of the constellations. Based on the Zodiarts of Kamen rider Fourze, Dragonvale world Zodia Dragons, Dragon city horoscope dragons, and all the fantasy games. Ruled by Empyrial Phoenix Astrologia Skyseer, Fenix Zodiarc (Phoenix Sword Constellation). Special ability is that half of the constellation, the sword (head with long blade on its head) and the wings of the bird activates “Sword of the stars/sky” increasing attack extremely. And the shield (the breast/body of the bird) and many tail feathers and handle of the sword shine activating the “Shield of the sky/Stars” increasing defense drastically. Based on the Galaxy formation right (attack) and Galaxy formation left (defense) ability of Skyseer Ardent Dragon, Cross Farnese Astrologia. Fenix Zodiarc design also based on Skyseer Ardent Dragon, Cross Farnese Astrologia with combo of Garga, Buster Excalibur, and Gundam 00 Sky) Monster Universe current state: Ultra Perfect Infinity Core: After fusing the Zodiarc realm to the monster universe, the grand monster universe has become more diverse with lots of new magic and hybrids forming to create a new realm. Ruled by Ultimate Utopia Infinity Nexus Sabre Deity, Grand Muteki Magnum Fenix Ultra Perfect Core. He wields the Ultimate armor and sabre in all monster history. His armor is a combination of Gundam 00 sky, Garga, Buster Excalibur, Kamen rider Ex- Aid Hyper Muteki, Sieg Excalibur Avatar, AGE-IIMG Gundam AGEII Magnum, star winning gundam real mode, Cho-Z Spriggan avatar, and Jackknife dragon Stragrite the X. His armor swords (small sword connected to his forearms and shins) can light up in perfect mode into rainbow fire while the UPIC energy flows through his body so the crystals on his hands allow him to create any blade into his hands. However, he is now made of all Ultra Perfect Infinity core Crystal. His sword is the ultimate combination of the Star Muteki Sabre, the Infinity NexantElyxir Deity Sabre, and the Grand Constellation blade, Phoenix Sword. In the end, this flawless sword looks like Morning Glory Sabre (A crystal Sword similar to the Elyxir blade but has sharper crystal edge blades of magic (One of each Gem) that has different magic abilities and auras to attack on the edge of the Sabre (now made of the Ultra Perfect Infinity core crystal), and a shining rainbow jewel in the middle of the blade which the smaller edges connect to. The sword radiates and powerful celestial aura. The hilt itself made of all rainbow “Ultra Perfect Infinity Core Crystal” which charges the blade through the aura of the warrior. In the middle (the place where the hilt and sword are connected to) is based off of Cho-Z Spriggan’s Axe but the axe was purified and turned into a smaller-ish axe made of the Ultra Perfect Infinity Core crystal and has UPIC crystals on the edges to which the magic floating “wings” connect to magically. In the middle, a mighty (smallish) UPIC crystal Shield is in the middle connected to the axe thing which charges the entire blade and connects with Fenix in order to change forms (the shield is based off of Cho-Z Achilles Shield with fiery wins (3 wings on each side) and the phoenix symbol in the middle of the shield. The Middle of the shield is made of the UPIC crystal known to be the core of the sword connecting to the core of Fenix thus allowing to activate moves from Prime, Faux, Zodiarc, and any monster universe. Lastly, the jewel at the bottom of the hilt can activate certain spells and has been powered up by the Muteki blade forming the Ultra Muteki Jewel (shining crystal/gold armor covering around the jewel) making it 100 times more powerful unleashing more powerful spells (Based on Garga Blade Mage). Spryzen, and Cho-Z Achilles. Uses 0 disc and wall disc frame with a slight change as it has rubber arrow things protruding outward to activate the extensions between the edge of the ax and edge of the sword. Tip is Zeta tip all changed. Attack tip is a combination of Jolt, Ultimate Reboot, and Zeta attack tip (normal is Zeta tip) and (Reboot form is jolt tip). Defense tip is a round tip with ball in inside and a spring at the top allowing extended movement. The center of the tip has a rubber sticking thing similar to Orb Aegis Quest Tip. If not sticking, the edges of the top in pressure, has slight blade so the beyblade drifts like Emperor Forneus, but the edge can also cause limited movement when holding ground. Lastly, the stamina tip is a combo of the Absorb tip from Geist Fafnir and the Zeta stamina tip, round and sharp. If lots of pressure or high spin speed, the bottom rises upward, or bey presses down connecting the jags of the top absorb tip and the jags of the zeta stamina tip allowing a boost in speed like Geist Counter.

Kaladesh:

Shandalar:

Alara/Vedalken:

Mirrodin:

Lumen/Lumyn/Quartzer: Powerful puffle monsters who are from the illuminati or the Quartzer which are guardians of time whom make sure that history is going well. These puffle monsters use the powers of the Lumen force to enter a timeline, destroy the villain, and leave without a trace only to be discovered that Eternity code is left. However, when fused with the Monster Universe, their magic fused with the lumen forming new hybrids with powerful magic stronger then the last and still continue their mission.

Globepuffle: Puffles from the globepuffle: a planet full of puffles of magic kinds (the evolved form of Puffle Planet). Magic puffles have evolved with the current forms of magic and have been constantly evolving but these puffle monsters are the cute cuddly kinds known to be collectibles with tons of challenges to earn them. These have a magic crystal marble like core that glows bright and turns them to a gold color forming magic lines of their color to form around them as an armor making them even stronger then before called Hyperform. These puffle monsters can even be enhanced with items and other equipment to be even stronger in that phase.

New Hero: Redson, Son of Redison, the 2nd and 31st hero who wields the Legendary Hero band (a magical wristband that can act as a watch, if the glowing white spot on it is pressed, activating the Z-ring like form of a watch that can be used like the C-Cube (Artemis Fowl), and can transform him into Transcendant Sabre Deity X form (Garga), and Hyper Guardian X form (Uses Powerful futuristic weapons like 3Below: Tales of Arcadia but suit looks like Bakugan Battle Brawlers: New Vestroia as Castle Knights). Draws X with 2 bands (one on each hand) unleashing Eternity code like magic.

X-Ryze: Powerful puffle monsters created by the new rider system invented for Redson to unleash. Using a keyboard like device (Based on Captain Marvel's Color changer for her suit) it can summon puffle monster magic to become a Kamen Rider form with the weapons and abilities. These puffle monsters magic symbols and stuff however were eventually released and transformed into real puffle monsters that can use those abilities unique to them.

Fizzuria: Puffle monsters from the magic sparkling realm of Fizzuria. Threatened to be destroyed from the evil drainers, Pop Fizz's father created and sent Pop fizz into a ship that absorbed all the magic from Fizzuria and launched it away. The magic and inhabitants became little halfbottles (Kamen Rider Build) that can be used in a suit transferring their magic and activating weapons and skills. Halfbottles are combined to make weapons and new powers, while some bottles are combined with many others to make Fullbottles used for a grand armor and new magic and abilities created. The ship landed in Canada and Redison met them (when we still lived in Canada) and let them live underneath Redison's home/lab (The one I made of Foam blocks and wooden animals as a gateway). With the lab technically abandoned, pop fizz has made it into his home. On a mission to discover Redison's lab in Ecole Riverbend School, after an ambush by Rena Ranger (Alexis's monster), Quasar (Trenton's Monster), Zack (Zachary's monster), and Lance (Landon's monster), Pop fizz saved him and gave him the suit. They have been brainwashed of Redison's memories as they were his friends by the Drainers in which Redson defeated using the powers of all the bottles combining it in one fullbottle that evolved himself, in which afterwards created a new realm in space for Fizzuria to rebuild and a new home for all the fullbottles and halfbottles brought back to life. Based on Kamen Rider Build.

Terramana: Powerful puffle monsters from an alternate universe where their Earth has a form of life called Super-life/Hyper-life in which these puffle monsters skillfully master through magic and technology through a magic source called Terramana. Akiridion: Based on 3Below. These Energy based life form puffle monsters from another universe in which all the universe has been united under one peaceful rule, these puffle monsters wield advanced weapons of magic (from the other galaxies as well) and the powers of their cores which wield their soul and magic. They also unleash Ultra Burst for a final attack or last resort ability in battle.

Opherion: Legendary magical spirit puffle monsters who live in an ancient realm of magic in the form of ruins and even cities of myths. These puffle monsters appear in the form of floating balls of magic fire of any color depending on the magic wielded. Live in world based off of dream a few nights ago in Mid July where a magic snowy forest leads to a cave of ice thats super colorful, also home to an area similar to atlantis, a half sunken kingdom of magic and advanced technology, as well as other worlds. Based on the spirits of the Inheritance Series, Geronimo Stilton Kingdom of Fantasy, and Artemis Fowl. These puffle monsters have the legendary power to actually create Eternity code (which only they can do) and also create true names and other secret magic. They are advanced creatures and created the flow of magic which is unlimited now as it fused with the Monster Universe. Ruled by Redson (given the powers of the Grand Opherion Spirit), He can now create Eternity code as well. These puffle monsters wield a mysterious form of magic in the form from a dream 7/15/19 of magic elements (fire, crystal, life, and a form of magic in which all were there), but also include forms of magic from all video games (Dragonvale, Dragonvale World, Dragon City, Kamen Rider, etc etc etc), and also include Keyword Abilities MTG, WoW magic, and Elemental Battlegrounds from Roblox as well as items and auras as well as worlds and monsters from Swordburst 2 Roblox. This World constantly evolves as the spirits take the most pure form of magic from each realm as representatives for each form of magic. Ex: There is a spirit for a certain symbol in Opherion Code which could be a base for the Fire Blast Magic

MBP (Monster Battle Planet): Puffle monsters that spread to Earth creating a game that became a game used like Bakugan Battle Planet. Each human collects their own puffle monsters and can grant special abilities and spells using cards but the monsters use commands to battle. When not in battle, they take the form of little toys that can move or stuffed puffle plush of that color with armor. All over the Earth, battle arenas set up to ensure safety to surroundings forming magic time dome over area or special elemental settings to grant bonuses to monsters of the same element. Mixes with elements and magic on Earth (Trench, Mangrove, Dune, Glacier), as well as animals and nature from other times in history (Gear (Great depression), Jurrasic, Mammoth, Gladiator)

PFX: Puffle monsters made of the magic through the Phantom Gem. Once the evil Phantom Ruby with the power to form distortions in reality, now purified to work with the effects of magic. Invention of Redson to form Puffle monster attacks in a card form that can be used in normal battle forming the monster (in a particle like state) as a clone performing that attack. Used Quantum glitching and applied it to a magic crystal particle (Plavsky Particle) so no magic is involved in battle (no eternity code magic found), but Phantom gem has both crystal dust and magic (not of eternity code) to apply this. Live in magical realm where these puffle monsters would live similar lives forming hybrids and even more FX monsters. Based on RG Burst attack from Gundam Build Try Fighters (When Build Burning Gundam releases a bunch of plavsky clones of himself doing different attacks)

Thara/Ohm: Puffle Monsters of the magical preserved paradise below the Earth's Surface in the places of pure where Humans have not entered yet living in a realm of pure magic and technology beyond advanced using the Earth's Core as a grand magic source. There are also smaller zones called Tribunals where they gather their magic through rituals and summon new puffle monsters and types of magic in the tribunals as well. They can also resurrect fossils, or even create new creatures and stuff through the use of the magic in the Tribunals. Puffle Monsters based off of Kung Fu Pets, Swordburst 2 Roblox, and Elemental Battlegrounds from Roblox as well, WoW, and Artemis Fowl. These puffle monsters use the magic of Runes in which each Rune is a base symbol that each puffle monster has a unique symbol for when it comes to controlling the ancient magic down there. They use a special move charge ability charging the ancient magic energy around the symbol they form and when hit, forms a gong forming giant soundwaves of purity basically creating an area that they can use their final attack to transform the evil they fight into a symbol that is purified.

Land Spirits: Based on Pokemon Sun and Moon Island Guardians (Tapu Koko). These magical puffle monsters are magical guardian spirits of certain aspects of magic. They can also form into a floating head like form to defend. Also wield powerful magic terrain abilities (Electric Terrain), to grant special abilities and advantages in battle.

Astral Legion: Puffle monsters from another universe far away in a realm called the Ark where puffle monsters from everywhere went to as a Haven. Set in the future, these puffle monsters are powered by the magical Astral energy in which they can summon powerful alien creatures called the Legion with a special device connected to them (the legion being an embodiment of a certain emotion, persona, or magic) that they can do combined attacks to battle evil. The Legions can change though in which each puffle monster has an infinite number of different Legions to choose from to use in battle. Each Legion likewise is unique in magic and eternity code as well as battle style and abilities. After Redson, and his Legion battled the final boss in the Astral Plane (where all the evil invaders have been coming from attacking the Ark), the magic used created new magic (pure magic) creating new puffle monsters and new legions that their part of the Astral plane fused with the Ark, and soon, all the Astral plane fused with the Ark creating a giant universe sized Ark. Based on Astral Chain.

Xerxes: Puffle monsters from another universe of magic in which all forms of magic even mythical beasts, their homes, and their properties and parts have their own magic that puffle monsters can wield. All magic has a magical symbol that could take the form of a token or even a USB like device. These puffle monsters wield the powerful symbols as it enters them granting special spirit abilities of the Beast soul that entered them. Each Beast Soul grants unique abilities to different puffle monsters that wield the magic symbol thus forming new monsters with that hybrid magic as a normal ability and combining with another symbol creates another unique, and so on and so forth. Power flow is similar to that of Chi in the Legends of Chima (The giant blue or red animal thing that comes out when they place Chi in them). Magic based on Gaia Memories and OOO Tokens. Beast soul grants a magic skill of theirs to them. Redson rules them as the legendary warrior known as the Ultimate Beastmaster (that is their emperor title).

XiaoYin/ShaoYin: Puffle monsters who follow the magic principals and ancient techniques of the XiaoYin school in which these puffle monsters use ancient martial arts and weapons to enhance their soul magic forming a powerful aura that flows in their magic attacks unleashing powerful abilities and techniques with magic symbols and elements similar to Z-Moves. These puffle monsters live high in the mountains above the magic clouds in which they live in a magical universe where the Xiaoyin school teaches in each zone of magic (desert has their own techniques and magic compared to the fire region). Based on Beylin Temple and Beylin Fist as well as Beyblade Burst GT Heaven Pegasus.

Pyize/Piyse: Powerful Legendary Puffle monsters from the Infinite Universe of Peace. In this alternate universe of magic, there were infinite universes of magic (Universe of sand, Universe of Jungle, Universe of Mysterious Elements, Universe of Peace, Universe of War, Universe of Music, etc (one for each form of magic, persona, soul, eternity code)). These puffle monsters all made portals to each other but only lived in their own. The Universe of War and the Universe of Chaos, and all the other universes of evil magic came together and decided to attack the others trying to unite them under one, the Universe of EVIL, but Redson came to their aid and rallied them even gaining a new form strong enough to defeat the leaders and the main leaders of the Universes of EVIL, and even was able to purify the evil Universes of magic making sure they use their evil-ish magic for only self defense and thwarting evil invaders. Then, all the universes came together under one banner as the Universal Empire of Pyise/Pyize, which actually fused all the universes together into one infinite Grand Ultra-Gigaverse, all with grand kingdoms and magical lands each with unique cultures and architecture as well as unique forms of magic in each universe of magic. Each individual puffle monster has their own eternity code, but each puffle monster from the same universe of magic has a similar-ish eternity code (10-20 similar symbols), but different puffle monsters from other universes of magic have different codes, but all share one thing, known as the Utopian Ring. Formed by the Utopian Pact of Universal Peace, and Utopian Treaty of Purity which fused the universes together and purified the evil magics, formed a magic ring around the puffle monsters similar to the rings around Chaos Number 39, Utopia from Yugioh Xexal. Use these magic orbs around them to change their form and gain boost in power, only 2 per battle but Redson's arrival and the evolution plus fusion of the monster universe and universe of Pyize, granting infinite forms they can transform granting unique eternity code creating more unique puffle monsters.

Based on Star Dragon World Buddyfight

Makyna: In the year 2119 on Earth 9, these puffle monsters from a steam-punk future with the power of gears arrive. These puffle monsters have a rust look to them and have powerful attacks. They can hijack into most machines and can unleash Ultimetal and FulMetal Powers (Electrified magic energy) to unleash attacks through the Makyna Gears. Based on Kamen rider Kikai Rygal/Throne/Xerrho: Powerful puffle monsters from Earth Zero. Accessed through a hidden gateway at the back of the Throne of Ohma- ZI O 2 (During the war on Earth 3 2019) enters realm of the 5th dimension where puffle monsters there see the infinite timelines and realities as points moving along lines in time in this paradise they live in as well. Very Regal design as powerful magic energy flows through them activating “Absolute Majesty” where they are indestructible to any attack.

Odeax/Odyax: Puffle monsters from the year 2068 in Earth 13. Once the main place where Ohma-ZI O ruled as the king there, now purified through magic and the defeat of Ohma-ZIO creating a new power. These legendary knight puffle monsters are powerful in time techniques but also using the Perfect Circle power can form ancient symbols through the lines intertwined unleashing powerful spells, weapons, etc. Based on Dread Circle from Dread Bahamut XzunJyianInfinity: Ultimate Puffle monsters from all the timelines from all the Earth realities. Connected through a hidden symbol allowing the ability to cross timelines and realities, these puffle monsters unleash their unique magic through the symbol (Zi O’s symbol) in battles. Fused after the defeat of Ohma- ZI O 2 by Leon, created a new form changing the Black and Gold to White and Gold creating a new purified form that can unite time in a peaceful manner fusing all the worlds together and creating the symbol that they all have. When the XzunJyian Calibur is fully charged, these puffle monsters can unleash a full power special move unique to them from their timeline (Ex: Infinity Ignite XI (From Earth 11)). Also have the Aura Glow which shows their true power but can also summon spells and attacks as well boosting power.

GeizArck/ RGA: Based on Kamen Rider Geiz and his armors. Puffle monsters with the powers of the future of magic. Unleash Ride Gear Ark/Armor to evolve form and gain special abilities. Puffle monsters have unique Katakana symbols in a design like Geiz though.

Orphenoch: Puffle monsters based off of Kamen Rider OOO and Kamen rider Faiz. These puffle monsters hail from a future where puffle monsters have evolved further granting new plasma/Photon energy as well as combining it with natural magic and normal magic. These puffle monsters unleash powerful armor by their spirit power (their Orphenoch beast) giving them a boost in stats and special abilities

Zikhan: Based on Kamen Rider Woz Future Ring and the Noon Universe. These puffle monsters from another universe in the 22nd century of futuristic technology and communistic ideals travel to and from many other worlds uniting their worlds forming hybrid magic. Using old magic (our current magic) with New techniques (Now called Neo-Magic), and New Magic (Zikhan Magic), these puffle monsters unleash powerful abilities and attacks.

Wandring: Powerful puffle monsters that wield archaic, runic, elder, and symbol magic through the powers of magic wands they wield. Formed by their magic ring/bracelet, they can form their own unique wand unleashing unique spells and powers. Based on Boboiboy Movie 2 Elemental powers as well as all magic before.

Geomancy/Xhyne: Powerful crystal puffle monsters who wield the powers of geomancy as all crystals have one powerful unique rune, which each puffle monsters wields and unleashes in their own unique form of abilities and attacks. Live in crystal realm of crystal nature and technology.

Engaard/Engarrd/N-Garrd: From an alternate timeline branched out from the possibility puffles never evolved but evolved way later due to the first apocalypse never happening in the first place (sometime in the 2013-2014 school year (4th grade) My Achi Cailtin told me that Shobe might grow out of puffles and I should stop it, so I decided to kill them all and Jimmy and I did a shooting game to kill the survivors, until I evolved them). In this time, in the year 2119 (100 years from now), the greatest compendium (collection) of puffle monster data in Memories (Memory SD card things) is stored in an infinite center of magic where it is stored. During this time, a program known as the Deity Sword (Guardian Program) spread throughout the system (Known as the FutureNet (The future of network and technology for storing data) transforming the data from the memories creating puffle monsters from the data granting each one a unique data symbol (their unique core symbol) to unleash magic. All were teleported to our time to meet with Leon to fuse our worlds. Based on Kamen Rider Woz (Futuring), Kamen rider Zero One, and all magic. These puffle monsters unleash magic through the Futurenet (or the now called Engaard Program) using unique symbols they can activate.

RX-Ion: Powerful puffle monsters similar to Kamen rider Build. These puffle monsters utilize the power of medicine and miracle drugs (Based off of the drug prescriptions we invented for Cell Bio) These puffle monsters use these to make the world a better place. They each have their own unique power of the drug. Live in city of medicine.

:on: In the future of “the kingdom of Zohrua”, the Feyra evolve into puffle monsters (or super versions of them) as they unleash more powerful runes and hybrid runes as their world fused with magic from the monster world. After finding a relic of Puffles, discovering that the Feyras were actually a sub-evolution from the puffles long ago. These new puffle monsters now unleash legendary runes through calling of the ancestors unleash a powerful attack. They can unleash many new forms of runes (normal monster magic) and also Feyra runes as well. Ruled by Leon as he evolved the Hero Sword with the magic of Æon creating a new form of the sword allowing for the armor and sword to unleash the true potential of all runes as well. This also met up with the Engaard puffle monsters as they shared magic with them as well, allowing the sword to unleash code symbols too.

Æther: Discovered by Ryu who entered the timeline portal the Engaard puffle monsters left through, he entered their universe in 2119 discovering puffle monsters are now stored in memories as all puffle monsters are now scientists (basically became humans). However, he found a magic portal taking him into another universe (a 5th dimension of their universe). He discovered the magic of Aether Creation where puffle monster memories are created in this new peaceful place where all magic in this timeline is created and in a peaceful utopian realm. Based on Kamen rider Wizard. These puffle monsters are created by powerful magic each with new powerful runes and symbols from this heavenly paradise of magic that they can unleash in battle. They have all the powers from this timeline and other timelines associated to it from all time periods (3004, 6119, etc). The Æther provided a home for the Æon temporarily until monster magic fused with them both forming hybrid runes and symbols of magic.

Fæux: Artificial Puffle monsters created from a purified form of the Nimbus 4D Fabricator called the Infinity Æther Fæux Creator. In 2119 where Engaard is from, scientists created a machine that can create puffle monsters through a 3D printer machine using monster material for it (The Nimbus 4D Fabricator). In this case, Æther magic and all the other magics are inputted into the machine as code in which the machine uses as a design to create. Then it creates a unique symbol and magic for them to wield. Finally, they are created with Puffle Star magic (where the puffle monsters come from when they fall to Earth) and magic from the Star tree as well (with puffle monster DNA of course) given form and powers and brought to life. Live in the Puffle Paradise world where all Fæux puffle monsters live and create, forming hybrid magic with the puffle magic present there and creating new types of magic for the Nimbus to code in and create. New habitats and new forms of magic with new abilities, symbols, eternity code, Opherion code, etc are made through Æther magic, and all other forms of magic stated above creating new puffle monsters, new attacks, new weapons, armors, and abilities. Based on Idea that I can create a puffle through a 3D printer. Also based on Faux Cyrillic

ЯeVenge: Dark Will came back finding a new evil puffle monster of darkness, a black with red lines puffle monster with the power of Corruption and dark magic. Dark Will finds him and discovers a portal to 2119 where they find the Nimbus 4D Fabricator after ridding all the scientists (who fled to 2019 as well now assisting with the IAFC with their unique magic (Stated above)). The evil puffle monster inputs his dark magic creating a code to make evil puffle monsters (Another riders basically) using the machine. As the world in that timeline has no living thing anymore (all teleported to 2019 by Æther), the army of ЯeVenge puffle monsters take over that universe (since the timeline is changed anyway by the Æther so the ЯeVenge can harm nothing past, present, and future). In this case, the Æther created a new timeline for the ЯeVenge to rule (a blank slate) while the scientists still live in their timeline now with a portal to the Monster Universe. Meanwhile, Dark Will found the Dark Gold puffle monster (OHMA ZI O) with the power to destroy time and prophesied to begin the apocalypse of monsters which gave that power to Dark Will to become Ohma ZI O (He evolved it further becoming Ohma ZI O II (2)) and even found the Distortion Phantom Ruby puffle monster as well. Both of them became Яeborn as new puffle monsters with even stronger powers through the Nimbus 4D Fabricator (Now called the Яebirth Zeta Fabricator). This created Ohma ZI O III (3) with new powers of time destruction and ƆЯIMƧON (Crimson) Distortion Chaos Puffle monster or just ƆЯIMƧON with even stronger distortion power (However, puffle monsters are now immune to these powers due to the Aether magic and the new hero magic evolving all puffle monsters in which their universe and their kind are now immune to all these evil affects and attacks of Dark Will now)

Newton: Scientist puffle monsters from the timeline with Engaard. These puffle monsters have only science magic (math, physics, etc) but apply it to creating machines and enhance their science and technology. The Æther created a new timeline for the ЯeVenge to rule (a blank slate now, which was once their timeline originally) so they still live in their timeline now with a portal to the Monster Universe to help with the IAFC as well as creating new updates to the magic in their world and their machines as magic fused with them forming hybrids of magic and monsters with monster magic and scientists magic. Live in a futuristic city of magic and technology (Based on Tomorrowland Disney Movie) where the Aether and the Aeon help out as well as all puffle monsters too.

Scrolln:

Beyonders Matrix (BYXis): Based on me getting powers in alternate universe and Progrise keys. In this alternate universe, I unleash new powers and transform into different superheroes (flashpoint, riptide, sonicwave, inferno, starblitz, etc) each with unique abilities (Kind of like the progrise keys). Xander went over to that alternate world to discover there are puffle monsters there too but they are aligned with the Earth dimension trying to take the powers of the super power, so Xander works with him (me) and builds more progrise keys (with new magic of this dimension plus ours) granting him new powers but he also becomes a kamen rider as well to fight off the others and take their powers. Xander finds a map that leads to a mysterious realm with all these powers (apparently the source of the power) so they head there discovering this great universe created by the Architects (a subcategory of the Ancients) and fueled by the magic of the Beyonders (the descendants and new magic monsters of this universe) who place their powers into a magic matrix so all puffle monsters could share and form the hybrid magic symbols. Xander unleashed his world building magic and fused the BYXis part of the universe to the PMU (puffle monster universe) fusing the magics together.

Gemclone Universe (GCU): Gemclone buddyfight. Puffle monsters with the powers of the Gemclone magic. These custom puffle monsters can absorb magic and rebuild the magic in their core in order to make it more unique for them, forming a crystal (Gemclone) symbol, therefore creating a world and more hybrid monsters in their own universe.

Avem: Alan Walker World of Walker. Powerful puffle monsters of the future where they wield the magic and technology of the Avem drones granting them unique magic and skills (Progrise keys). These puffle monsters can unleash the drones and even evolve them. In this world, a solar storm destroyed the realm so before that, the puffle monsters created the prophecy disk and the drones of magic and placed them into a time capsule set for 481 years in the future at the year 2500 where these descendants unleashed the powers of the drones and found the haven of the Avem where all the refugees from all timelines (2019-infinite) have rested and evolved their magic and civilization with these new hybrid magic and technology. Also based on Kamen rider build, as these puffle monsters unleash powers of the fullbottles and halfbottles as well.

Infinithouser/Thouser: Each symbol has infinity Thousand others. Powerful puffle monsters of the future of magic. In this world, all magic symbols of magic (unique and personal but also standard) form magic rings around them of the infinite variants and subcategories of magic (each symbol that makes up the ring also has a infinithouser ring around their symbol as well, and so on and so forth) creating more hybrid magic and more powerful magic puffle monsters evolving the universe and expanding it bigger.

ZAIAEVE: Each has a code. Future of monsters where each is actually a robot and coded with certain programs. So a fire puffle monster in this world has Code: Flame or another warrior puffle monster can have Code: Asura. Puffle monsters are in the world of the humans as robots (Big Hero 6 bot fight) coded with a unique code system of magic that also contains the infinithouser rings as well to make more

Regaloria: Based on Champion world a long time ago, these puffle monsters are the ultimate forms of each puffle monsters with champion stats and abilities with the powers of the spirit armor of Regulus (Star of the King). Based on Pokemon Spirit Armors (theory) granted to the unique puffle monsters with each representative of a magic symbol (infinite plus the infinithouser rings around them) granted a unique Regalorian form

Reimagined/PMGI (Puffle Monsters Global Infinitiverse): Puffle monsters from a digital VR universe in the future where all these puffle monsters with the infinithouser rings and stuff are collected and battled with in a VR game. Accessed through VisoRs, the player can enter the digital world (teleport) and play in the server. Each space has its own unique server with unique settings, worlds, magic, symbols, and monsters. These puffle monsters grow more infinite with the infinithouser rings. However, with this new power, all space in the digital world as well has its own server too, creating more infinite realms. After Xander saw this future, he fused it with the other puffle monsters and evolved the monster universe by fusing the reimagined universe as well, creating an online hybrid as well, with the unique symbols and space as well as creating more hybrid magics and applying the infinite space idea in the monster world.

ArchWizard: Based on the origins of the Xenith Clock, long ago, the very first ancients (precursors to puffles and architects of the worlds) were owned by magical wizards known as the ArchWizards, but during a war against the Archwizard of the Dark Arts who turned evil due to the dark arts magic possessing him, the wizards were almost destroyed until the brother of the very first Ancient (both owned by the wizard Xenith, whom both loved to play and hide in the grandfather clock in his house (what the Xenith clock was based off of) jumped in front of the blast saving all the wizards, and when they found his crystal core, they transformed into puffle monsters themselves in order to unleash the powerful magic of the ancients and also fuse it with their wizard magic, to defeat the Dark wizard and seal his powers into the black heart. After that, they enlargened the clock (that became Xenith) and stored the black heart there, while the wizards began to create other clocks in the magical space and began to head out by splitting up with clocks of their own. Each clock has their own hero, unique magic, and infinite worlds collected just like Xenith. All the worlds following up to Diushin are all part of the Clocks system, which Xander fused in the end evolving all magic creating a mega clock with all the clocks inside it, fusing all the magics and worlds after gaining the powers of the other heroes as allies, and the wizard's granting him powers as well. The wizards form also began to evolve and formed a present day form where their ancient magic fused with the other forms of magic and created more Archwizards creating more clocks and realities with heroes and worlds, which Xander works to fuse with as well.

Plusle: Atom and Magic Energy Control

Souleria: Aura and Soul control

Lyfelynk: Life energy sharing

Emotaria: Emotion charged

Warath: Warcry, battle aura

Ohrakle: Intelligence

Anubyis: Ancestor, Spirit, Phantoms

Bladra: Weapons

Celestius: Celestial movement, star movement, prediction

Harmynium: Balance, Order, Control

Psyon: Psychic/Mind control

Morphagen: Genetic and Magic Modifications

Bounty: Food, Gold, Space, Resources

XhyningUnyion: Golden sync. Ultimate Creation magic and synchronization magic

Hrothkyn: Earth and gems

Horakyn: Sky magic

Jokenh: Fun and mini games

Zetalynx: Technology

Diushin: Lost civilizations

GaiaSoulg: Ruazika Aeons, Bakugan Battle planet core cells, forms, and attacks, Ryusoulger Max. Powerful soul warrior puffle monsters who wield the ancient magic of the Aeon Soul Cores. Each puffle monster wields a core cell which contains infinite forms of the symbol, even though their symbol is extremely unique. Their attacks strengthen each symbol and eventually creates another cell, that if collected can grant a unique ability and form. They can evolve to become unique forms depending on their symbol such as a berserker form or titan form. They unleash the magic of the Gaia Soul armor to unleash maximum potential of magic.

Xenithiary/Gaianary: Based on Kamen rider Zero One, Kamen rider Thouser, Progrise keys, and all the custom puffles on the CPPS. Powerful digital puffle monsters from a future where magic symbols are codes known as Gaianary code (based on binary code). However, the symbols began to form variants and evolutions leading to the development of the Xenithiary codes and the XenithRise keys containing the data of the magic along with variants, skills, memories, and abilities. The Gaianary data was also saved and placed into separate keys known as the GaiaRise keys. The hero of this universe, also named Xander, wields the Chouzetsu Gear which can access and wield the powers of both keys in order to form a fusion, a new power, or even an evolution of a certain form of magic depending on the keys used, unleashing a Perfect Rise Transcendent Evolution. When Blaanc attacked that realm, threatening to shatter their world (make it blanc), Xander summoned him and fused their universes together evolving all the magic puffle monsters as well as granting new magic to the keys creating new hybrid keys, new magic, all due to the possibilities of the Perfect Rise system fusing the keys data and etc.

Gaijytzuun: Scrolls of Infinite knowledge. All runes become monsters in this world hidden in an infinite library of magic. Based on Scrolls of Forbidden Spinjitsu and elemental powers of Ninjago, as well as Avatar and the library of the knowledge spirit. These puffle monsters wield scrolls with powerful symbols that power them with powerful abilities and wisdom of their magic ability creating more forms of magic.

FaenyXYZ: Based on Maleficent 2 and the phoenix. These immortal transcendent aura puffle monsters are ancient ancestors of monsters with the infinite knowledge of magic, spells, and abilities. They live in all parts of the universe as far as light has reached in the universe colonizing and creating new magic through the energy in the area. All wield the XYZ Flames of creation that the ancient phoenix wielded once and passed down.

Valgos: Order of the Cosmic Light. Based on Green Lantern and other designs of the green lantern symbol. Powerful puffle monsters of the light which wield magic symbols infused with cosmic energy unleashing powerful unique magic and spreading peace in their sector of their infinite universe which Xander also fused with the UltimateGodXenith Clock (all the other clocks were fused) to restore peace and form more forms of Valgos magic with the infinite variety of the symbols to power the cosmic energy as well.

Currently: So Blaanc (the warrior of the Order of Yiin (who ideal the destruction and reset of order and magic)) unleashed a conquest to other worlds trying to blaanc them (erase) but is always foiled by Xander with his magic as he fuses the worlds he tries to destroy since his erasing affects time which Xander can sense. So Blaanc tried to attack another world but the Valgos had stopped him with an ultimate light beam (combined force of their magic known as Prismatic Zenith) knocking him unconscious so with the opportunity, they purified his magic and created a new form of his magic, Neo, the cosmic magic of rebirth and Time, changing his form and his magic powers. This formed a tiny piece of blaanc magic left (now a white flame) that tried to hide away but was banished to Earth. The white flame (at PV) gathered the energy around it and formed a new body and a new soul (it already had a tiny piece left so it just repaired it) renaming its powers and persona as Naga Blaanc.

Vhran: Ruled by Vhral, the ultimate assassin (design based on Purgatory Knight) wielding all the assassin symbols and even created a few of his own symbols of magic, granted the ultimate assassin armor infused with the magic of the bloodhawk, the fury of a beast, and powers of Ares, these puffle monsters (evolved from Zeromons (a subspecies formed by Protomons)) unleash the magic of the blood creed which empower their usage of the Assassin symbols granted to them (each assassin puffle monster wields a magic symbol and is unmatched in that form of magic). This magic is a darker more violent form of a magic symbol only used by them and never fused or hybridized with other forms of magic. Assassins powers grant stealth, speed, sharpening blades, weapons, invisibility, etc. Under the order of the Yaang and once enemies of the Yinn order but now fused together

Naga (Blaanc): Puffle monsters (evolved from Zeromons (a subspecies formed by Protomons)) from the order of the Yinn with the ideal of the destruction and reset of order and magic. They have the powerful magic of absorbing magic (so absorb one magic symbol turning the symbol white but leaving the outline with the color (so a leaf symbol is now white but outlined in green)) and rewriting the magic symbol to be ideal for their world and reapplying it. This magic also works with dimensions and time as they can delete and rewrite history.

MaXZYnith: Dynamax and Z crystals. Fusion of Naga, Vhral (assassin symbols, now purified) and powers from Monxters creating new crystals with unique symbols as a core unleashing MaXZYnith souls (formed by the crystals and symbols) while unleashing Z move attacks, a Z-move form, a dynamax/gigantamax form, and a MaXZYnith form (Max Ryusoul Red)

Z.A.I.A (Zenith Ark Infinite Ancient): Primal Revolution and Ultra Burst. Powerful puffle monsters who wield the ZAIA orb core allowing them to unleash powerful forms of magic while absorbing magic from nature and cosmic energy as well. These puffle monsters can change into one unique evolved form, their normal form, OriginRise Prime (Primal Reversion) and UltraRise Burst (Cosmic energy absorption burst (Ultra burst))

Jihyensai: Oceana's world of infinite wisdom, and a fusion of the now purified magic of the Vhral and Naga (powers to rewrite history and unleash powerful skill based abilities). Mega evolution like abilities as well and can change to many different forms.

Eirias: Based on the Book of Swords, and the list of fictional swords. These legendary knight puffle monsters wield the swords as partners with the sword wielding their own persona and unleashing a perfect synchronization with the warrior unleashing a bond phenomena boosting the power of the sword and unleashing its true form. Flame sabre to True Flame Sabre. Another magic power is the legendary sword I forge in the future, a rainbow crystal sword with the names of all my friends and family engraved as characters on the sword and the sheath creating the most immortal and powerful sword in all of time (known to be the sword of Xenith, created under the Lord of Xabres). These puffle monsters also wield the swords a spiritual partners kind of like the swords in the inheritence series Megarathea/Odysseyrion/Megaiathea: Hitchhikers guide, Infinite probability, String Theory, etc with the Alfa-Xeon liner that travels pan dimensions picking up puffle monsters from other infinity points and within them as well as taking them to the ultimate universal hub of infinite pocket dimensions, infinite knowledge and technology as well as magic from all the infinity points and universes. These puffle monsters come from dimensions of singular magic but with the infinite timelines and what not, so for example, pirate monsters can split into infinite forms, magic, abilities, etc and all live in a 10th dimension like point but just for that power (pirate). The liner picks monsters from that world up and takes them to Megarathea eventually fusing the points with Megarathea to better help with world building and magic. Also based on Super Mario Odyssey and how there could be a desert world of just crystal types, or just stone types, and other different environments with unique cultures, magic, etc.

AXiion Prime: Digital robot puffle monsters each created with an evolving program with a unique magic ability based on its code and function. These puffle monsters have powerful weapons and capabilities unique to their program designed by me in a future of robots and programming, creating these puffle monsters to evolve their data into a matrix system that creates more robot monsters. All these puffle monsters live in harmony with humans as Man's best friend. Based on the Abrazos day with the robots, AR, VR, and Quantum Computing as well as the Ascii table.

Xenoconstai: In a realm where I drew my own symbols kind of like Ruazika or Raokurai, these monsters bear those symbols of magic granted by the heavens. There are infinite forms of magic such as I drew a symbol of pyramid types or water lily types, symbols of Raokurai, Ruazika, ghost symbols, Dragonvale, Dragonvale World, Dragon City, and Dragon Story magic all became symbols with each symbol having a zodiac or constellation symbol for each realm and magic.

Sygilon: Sorcerers that lived in the time of the archwizards but in a different realm worked with the magic spirits and alchemists of magic as well as the magic beasts who formed connections with the infinite planes of magic. The alchemists/sorcerers created core medals to represent certain symbols and sigils as artificial life which became magic creatures in the form of monsters that got the powers of the beasts as well (through a union of the sorcerers and the beasts. These puffle monsters with these powers whom evolved separately from all the other worlds have created their own worlds, heroes, magic abilities, weapons, tech, etc and wield magic and live in the newly evolved infinity planes of magic

G-Superion: Created by the Gynnius creatures, magically and technologically pan-dimension creatures superior in knowledge of magic and tech who arrived in the same realm and created their own world of monsters whom evolved independantly with the magic abilities and advanced tech of the Gynnius creatures. They wield the magic of G-superiority but also wield the ability of G-Boost allowing powerful unique boosts in stats and abilities that only each monster wields. Use magic symbols energy like the ones surrounding Gwyn Reynolds (Beyblade Burst GT)

Rheunon: In the magic realm, the magical creatures capable of performing magic such as elves, faries, dwarves, mermaids, starspirits, ghosts, dragons, and other creatures formed a union among them all unleashing the greatest spell in history as they granted into a single circle of magic, all their symbols and magic of each culture for each species of the creatures in order to create and fuse with the other forms of magic as well to create hybrids of infinite types. These magical puffle monsters likewise evolved independently from the others as they wielded a now modern as well as the ancient symbols and language of the creatures long ago living in a magical universe of that magic.

Panzaia (pronounced pan-zea): The last creatures known to perform magic were a shapeshifting race of aliens known to have come from another universe completely whom have been preserving their culture and magic through the magic of the star tree (ordinary trees in their universe), but also fused their magic and the magic of the realm here combining it with their powers and the star tree creating new creatures (puffle monsters) that can also shapeshift now but also create magic and destroy, just like their ancestors. These aliens were known to be deities of magic creating portals with their ancient sigils inscribed on the portals to take them to worlds they have been trying to colonize, but with the discovery of the portals and the ultimate spell of unity, all the symbols of the portals, the magic of the natures and technology of the worlds within the portals (that all became symbols of magic (which in turn became monsters)) as well as the fusion of magic symbols from the other timelines of magic (if this was in the beginning, the magic from the future that evolved came to the beginning world and fused with those symbols of magic creating more worlds, magic, portals, and puffle monsters.)

New Hero: 11-18-19 Xavier, 35th hero (similar design to Aiga from Beyblade Burst Rise, except with a red jacket with golden and silver lining, wear glasses every once in a while for analysis that are actually invisible (looks more like contacts) but can become visible to double as a visor when activating helmet) Brother of Xander. Had a crush on Lume for the longest time (Alison's monster) but was mostly her training partner, with a wild nature known for his inventive attacks and aggressive battle style but also has learned the ability to defend and allow the other to waste their energy as well. Now wielding the Ultimate Hero Band (now evolved further through the pandimensional magic as well as magic from the origins), he wields the Legendary XenithGodXabre of Infinite Magic, Grand XenithGod of Xabres Hero sword (a combination of all the swords of the past heroes as well as all magic swords and weapons from all the universes and worlds discovered, but also magic of the spirit world unleashing the Omega Blades as well. Combines the sword of Xenith, with all the other swords, omega blades, terraria swords, etc, as well as the True Deity Hero Xabre. Xavier wielded his own spirit sword as his companion which combined with the hero xabre unleashing a stronger resonance with the Hero Band and the Sword). Unleashes the new power of the URaavta GodInfinityAce Grand Infinity XabreDeity Magic through the ultimate form of the hero band

URaavta: Powerful puffle monsters of the spirit wilds (Based on Legends of Korra and Avatar series) plus all magic as well. These puffle monsters have powerful spirit magic, weapons, abilities, and technology. Fused with all magic (from the current day) and took it to the past realm in the very beginning living among the G-Superion and Sygillon as well. These powerful puffle monsters wield a legendary magic and weapon ability as well (Avatar state) making them almost undefeatable. Live in a now modern day universe of magic combined with their spirit wilds magic forming infinite new hybrids with the pandimensional magic as well.

Fantaszyon: Powerful puffle monsters who live in a universe of magic and technology that work together acting as science. There are many factions of puffle monsters in that universe with many different cultures, weapons, forms of magic, and etc. These puffle monsters use the magic of imagination and creation and based off of Vanguard G Cardfight, Buddyfight, Yugioh, etc

X.A.I.A: Stands for Xenith Artificial Intelligence Advanced/Augustus. These powerful puffle monsters use powerful digital techniques as they wield data from the XAIA cards (progrise keys) that was taken by Xavier from the underground PV labs when the patrol were creating weapons to stop the invasions (as PVHS is a main hub for new species). Each card wields a certain ability which has been evolved by the Ultra Dimensional Imagination Printer (a 3D printer) creating new personas, magic, creatures, abilities, weapons, etc). Each card (now evolved and created) has been transformed into monsters with powers and unique personalities and souls as well. Based on Kamen rider Zero One concept art and the progrise keys and abilities as well as Tron Uprising. These puffle monsters have skill based powers but also have animal and elemental magic based abilities as well.

Klause: Based on Netflix film Klaus. These puffle monsters from the north have magical creation abilities as well as unique crafting abilities to create unique objects and empower it with magic.

Shanyao/Shining Nova: Colorful shining puffle monsters with magic enhanced by magic light enhancing their powers and abilities. Wield unique powers and live in a sparkling universe of light. Based on Kamen rider Zero One shining hopper and the light displays of the TVs Pufflez: Powerful puffles that evolved independently ever since the evolution using infinite magic, technology, imagination, creativity, and all unique ideals and personalities, fused together to create their unique way of life and science (Based on Vanguard G cardfight, Buddyfight, all magic, Flippr puffles etc). The survivors used the magic of the rainbow rain to evolve magic instead but keep their form and enhance their abilities, spells, symbols, souls, personas, etc and allowed them to evolve their technology to explore to other universes discovering billions of other different branches of magic. To them, as time is no longer relevant, our magic (currently discovered) is called old magic as they advanced to that point of magic already (with some hybrids of theirs combined with all the magic we have discovered) in the beginning of time, where they have advanced further discovering and fusing the billions of forms of magic they have discovered composing it into the great library of magic. They live in the most advanced society of magic every to be created and all are just puffles, with some evolved-ish forms as well as precursors of them as well. All wield a unique form of magic though with the fusions of magic of the other universes and the hybrid forms of magic (say a fire type of one world fused with water of another universe, that symbol is hybrid and unique, with the next generation having similar powers as that symbol is now an ancestral to a billion others similar to it). Eventually fused with the puffle monster universe through the work of Shanyao, Otashl, Grisial, Astrikos, CDGVS, Rebirth, and Eternamax (especially this one since as they were fusing, Eterneightus came forth creating the rifts of pocket universes of both universes (pufflez and puffle monsters) but eventually created a harmonic convergence gathering those universes to create their unique branch of magic as well completing the fusion beginning the 8th year now of the Xenith (8th time resetting).

OtashI: Based off of Will Otash's idea to create a video game combining Fortnite, Minecraft, and have tons of weapons (terraria). I asked if I could join and give him ideas, he said I could. The game would be a crafting sandbox game with a battle royale like function and not completely cubical (Minecraft except not cubed and with battle royale, but I guess more enhanced like Fortnite). In my case, these puffle monsters live in this grand universe (an augmented reality as well as Virtual reality game) of magic with infinite weapons, magic abilities, etc. Live in their own communities with their own cultures and can battle others.

Grisial: Prism dragons from Buddyfight. These colorful crystal puffle monsters wield legendary abilities as well as powerful defense. They live in a crystal utopia and are very peaceful. Been creating enhanced resources they used for centuries now leading to eternal life for them.

Astrikos: Astral and Neodragons as well as Zodiac, and Drametal. These astral puffle monsters of the cosmos have been watching down from their world, the others and realized it was time. They lived individually from the other worlds and advanced on their own in magic, technology, etc becoming some of the most advanced civilizations with one of the strongest military force as well. They are granted their powers by the Astral Deities of the heavens and the constellations themselves as they create more constellations and stars represented by each puffle monster (each bear a constellation symbol (of their unique constellation) on them granting them their heavenly powers as well as a star core granting cosmic magic).

CDGVS: Also known as the Crowned (Corona) Dragod Valorian Steel. These puffle monsters wield the legendary steal of bravery, courage, etc as each armor, weapon, etc are designed for them unique for their battle style and unique magic ability as well. Known as the Crowned Deities of Combat, they each wield legendary skills of battle and wield unique powers and abilities granted to them by their CDGVS armor. Living in unique realms of magic powered by that magic, they train constantly but now use it in games and modern living as well. They have 2 forms, their (Hero of legends) form and their (Crowned Dragod (weapon) Valorian Deity) form. Based on Dragods of Buddyfight and Gargantua Dragon's forms Eternamax: Puffle monsters of the infinite pocket universes created by Eterneightus creating the rifts of magic. These pocket universes possess unique magic, nature, and monsters within them. Once Eterneightus was awakened, he unleashed the portals allowing them to invade the worlds but once Xavier made peace with Eterneightus, these puffle monsters were granted freedom to wander the worlds and the infinite pocket universes all fused together along with the Xeniths of the Pufflez and the Puffle monsters. They wield unique abilities, magic, etc from each of their pocket universes as well as their hybrid forms possess a form of that magic from the pocket universe and the magic of the other hybrid magic. Bear a unique symbol symbolizing they are from the pocket universes as well as a magic aura but they can transform into an Eternamax form, 10,000 times stronger than most puffle monsters in battle as the magic of the pocket universe is bestowed upon them unleashing full potential and unique powers.

Яeβirth: Based on Kamen Rider Birth. In this universe, puffle monsters have advanced technology and magic granting them the use of magic rebirth cells allowing for powerful customizations biologically (similar to Dragonvale Spellforms). Each Rebirth cell form grants a unique ability to the wielder but can also alter their stats as well, extra health, an extra soul ability (if HP at 0, and fully customized, revive without rebirth form), and even its own special attack, ability, and special move.

Northuldra/ZAetherion: Magic, Spells, aura, spirits. Based on the magical spirits from Frozen 2. In this universe, there are 2 Planes of magic, the natural and the Aether, each creating infinite types of branches of magic from both planes. As the Xeniths fused, Xavier discovered these planes and a conjuncting world as well finding peace between them and a way for their universes to fuse creating the hybrids of the natural and aether magic. These puffle monsters wield diamond cores with a symbol representing their power on them

Korunha: Magic is the only thing advanced with technology wiped out. Based on Kamen Rider Sorcerer, Mage, and Wiseman. These puffle monsters have a magic gemstone as their core granting them unique magic skills that they wield through its power as well as use it for common life as well.

Lerox: Monsters/Creatures who never evolved into the puffle monster state but was granted it recently but still able to master and wield their savage beast instincts and abilities. Their powerful instincts allow for powerful magic to be wielded as the Monsters whom evolved on their own actually created a unique form of magic as their magic evolved. These forms of magic formed more hybrids with the puffle monsters creating a more aggressive combat style, but very effective and fast. These puffle monsters are fierce, brave, and wild, wielding unique beast weapons that enhances their magic to the max. Based on Ryusoulger Red Max.

P.M.Z.D (Puffle Monster Zombie Defense)/ZEDD: These puffle monsters live in the realm “down under” as they have hidden underground and created a paradise for themselves there. In this universe, Dark Will A (the normal one and wielding the apocalypse sword) and Dark Will H (from another universe they hijacked, which wields the power to hijack magic) went back in time to Canada when I used to live there (so me in 1st grade) and released a virus that turned all puffles and humans there into zombies. Fast forward to 2019, puffles that were rescued were granted new powers similar to puffle monsters now as warriors with a powerful ZEDD boost attack unleashing powerful attacks to the zombies, which when destroyed turn into mana which they absorb for themselves (but the energy through them is shared to their underground home). Based on SD Gundam Soketsuden

Aer: Long ago, in the canadian past, puffles are taught the magic skill of magic through ancient scrolls. These puffle monsters first used aerjitzu (forming a tornado to fly proving puffles wrong that they can’t fly without wings) and spread their magic but also discovered other scrolls of magic as well discovering that Aer was actually short for Aether as well. Created a universe within that timeline but also was connected to the Kaiza universe that formed through that same timeline as when Xavier went to that timeline, the scrolls were stolen so he created a battle system of magic that he equipped the puffles with. So when they got the scrolls of Aerjitzu, the kaiza (battle system) puffle decided their powers were better and wanted to evolve it, they formed their own universe while the Aer formed their own universe.

Kaiza: Powerful puffles of the battle system which Xavier created for them, however, they evolved their magic further unleashing new abilities and gathering data on new magic in order to create new battle systems for their armor and abilities. Live in their own universe where the Kaiza system rules supreme and constantly evolves over time. Eventually split and fused with the Xenith along with the universe of Aer.

IVP (Suzaku): IVP stands for Infinite Variable Possibilities. These powerful puffle monsters were created from the legendary stone of magic where all of evil magic, dark magic, (Apocalypse magic), (Hijack magic), were stored and purified to balance out with the magic of good and pureness. This magic created an ultimate universe of infinite futures of the balance of good and evil with puffle monsters wielding both powers that can shape reality. These puffle monsters have unique symbols and magic powered by the infinite variables and live in an infinite dimension of infinite timelines created by the infinite possibilities of magic and situations. Based off of 6th Omni Storm Lord, Variable Cord.

Jynnraia: Encyclopedia of magic for each realm of magic increasing variety infinity fold. Based off the idea of “Greetings from Nowhere” this universe of magic is hidden away but moves constantly as it gathers magic from the universes where magic is forbidden and considered dangerous so magic is collected here, expanded, and cultured on creating puffle monsters and hybrids with other forms of magic collected from the other universes out there. Based on dragon story, as well as dragon vale, dragon city, etc with the monster types as colors and with my own ideas of colors and types of magic. Each realm has their own encyclopedia of magic with infinite points of magic and entries creating infinite monsters and subspecies for each realm

Ankidroid/Metadroid (Metroid): Robotic puffle monsters that use a unique code created by Xavier but also empowered by the Xenex Energy allowing them to wield legendary unique abilities each to their own code and powers. Live in a universe powered by Xenex (Based on Overwatch) as well as powered by their unique codes and abilities. Each puffle monster has a unique code and ability but also has a unique X energy that is charged by their Metacore (a fire type can have BlazeX)

Gyft/Rigal: Based on the idea of “The Adventures of Kidd Powers” except in the case where puffle monsters gain these magic skills they consider gifts (which are actually represented as symbols). They can go to certain areas and earn these gifts or buy them at those pillars of light. This causes the variety of magic to reach beyond infinite as they all have a unique arsenal of magic symbols (gifts) (so one monster can have the magic of pincers and lightning as well as speed, while another can have pincers and lightning but instead of speed, have strength). Also based on Dragon Story, Dragonvale, Ariki: From a dream of magic (Nov.29). These powerful puffle monsters used magic to train others in their phase of magic

Lite: Shining puffle monsters from the Lights of the World Universe with shining nature and everything. They have a shining force ability allowing them to transform into a “Dragon Force” like power allowing them to increase stats and gain a special ability Pyravian: Based on Fantasy Forest Story and Bakugan Battle Planet. These powerful puffle monsters use the powers of magic and life force energy to create new forms of magic through pyravian (phoenix) magic. These puffle monsters are known to have especially high stats and special stat abilities but also have powerful attacks.

CRESCENT: Elite puffle monsters of CREST where they advanced magic, tech, and communications creating their own unique magic. These puffle monsters have formed bonds with the students and use the unique aura magic of each in the crest program. Through this and fusing with other forms of magic collected, they created new powers and magic abilities that they wield alone but use to explore and expand. Based on Dragon story, but also progrise keys.

Kræyzɑlia: Alien puffle monsters of another dimension with the ability to lock monsters but also gather data in order to restore their world. Infinite tribes and Factions of each realm and even more sub-factions of each with their own unique abilities and magic were created when the great star fell from the sky and granted the aliens access to the magic of the universe allowing for them to evolve and use their locking ability for good as well as transform their magic and restore their universe to a perfected utopian state of infinite magic with the infinite factions and groups as well as subgroups with subspecies, with each member wielding their own unique symbol of magic as well as their own ability.

Granthese: Legendary combat astral deities and the pinnacle of the human bond between humans and puffle monsters in technology and magic. These puffle monsters have mastered the bonds with humans and together, they created a universal utopia of the ultimate magic where magic and technology is evolving but it has reached almost a pinnacle state as they are extremely powerful already. Known to be the perfect future of monsters where humans bonded with them. More unique magic as the personas of humans and souls, as well as family and aura magic fused with the infinite magic of monsters discovered. Based on Jackknife Gold Ritter Granthese

Puffle Monsters Nexus Dimensions: Puffle monsters from an infinite open world gaming universe where magic reached the peak of development and is completed. This ultimate universe of magic became real and fused with the monster universe of magic to evolve the universes and fuse them. Based on idea that puffle monsters will become a video game in the future.

Puffle Monsters Infinity Story: Puffle Monsters from another gaming universe but in the case of a collecting game similar to Dragon Story and Fantasy Forest Story. These puffle monsters live in magic habitats but in a natural setting. They also wield legendary magic abilities and special skill sets as well. These puffle monsters can be obtained as well through a neverending story (based on dragon tales) with neverending forms of magic constantly evolving and finding new forms of magic with infinite forms of monsters of that type of magic Ikazuchi: Military armed puffle monsters created by the government for weapon purposes, and known for the ability to hybridrise (fusing a puffle monster with normal magic and fusing it with the Assault system (the military form) creating a powerful form. Used to combat the mutant omnic monsters that the secret society of PV made in order to conquer the world. Based on Kamen rider Zero one, progrise keys, assault grip, etc.

Puffle Monsters Spell Striker: Powerful puffle monsters that use magic spells and battle each other using word magic. These puffle monsters have unique abilities and are part of an app like universe (made real) that encourages others to spell words or use for others ways to study. They battle others and can unlock other monsters with special bonuses and stuff unique to their world

Puffle Monsters Infinity Collector: Based on Dragon games, Yugioh, battle spirits, buddyfight, vanguard, etc, and the Cat game: the cat collector! These puffle monsters are from another app like universe made real where these puffle monsters live in infinite habitats unique to their form of magic. Each puffle monster is unique in their own way and there is never an end to collecting them. Certain puffle monsters can get stronger depending on other puffle monsters you have collected allowing a magic link bond granting special bonuses in stats or abilities.

Puffle Monsters Creation Nation: The greatest nation of puffle monsters beyond time and space in its own realm. These puffle monsters have exceeded beyond magic creating cultures, clans, houses, zones, realms, etc unique to their own by mixing with other cultures to create new ones creating a larger variety of magic. They wield the magic of the infinite imagination nexus star of creation, which grants them unique magic and special abilities unique to them called imaginary skills, imaginary abilities, imaginary gifts, imaginary moves, imaginary stats, etc. Based on website I made of the infinite possibilities and futures and worlds created on the website creating those puffle monsters as well as puffle monsters I made (based off of Vanguard, and etc) Astralgea: based on gogo crazy bones. Powerful unique puffle monsters with the ability to shape shift into specific forms (infinite forms but all infinite are unique to them alone, each with their own form of magic). These puffle monsters have their own style of battling even though they are more collected than anything else. Powerful unique magic abilities and skills but with unique characteristics as well.

Smightronian: Based off of the Smighties (Herotopia). These powerful puffle monsters are an infinite number and live in their own superhero world of infinite magic where all puffle monsters have a super power. They defend others with justice and each have a unique ability that others don't have but wield it to the best of their abilities. This creates the infinite forms of magic, especially the hybrid forms of magic.

Kisala: Based on Rogue Galaxy. Powerful puffle monsters from the cosmos. These puffle monsters wield dimensional magic of the Rogue galaxy weapons of magic which create cosmic harmony throughout the worlds of magic and through the cosmos, creating new monsters with unique alien powers and weapons.

Granzea: Based off of Unison League. These powerful puffle monsters wield a variety of infinite magic weapons making them masters in combat but also as a military defense force which has allowed them to live for peace for centuries. With this magic, they have created tons of new forms of magic and created a league of monsters where their magic abilities have created a perfect harmony in magic with others creating new bonds and auras of magic.

Phantagrande: Based off of Granblue Fantasy.These puffle monsters live in the skies on floating islands floating due to the celestial magic of the creators long ago. These puffle monsters live with the magic of the infinity skies magic allowing them to harness their magic abilities to create new objects, items, and other beautiful things as they are a nation of crafters through their unique magic abilities and runic magic. They live in the floating islands as the land below is corrupted but after centuries of purifying in the skies, they found a way to purify the surface of magic where the magic puffle monsters of the Ark have been living and creating the utopian society of magic harnessing the magic of the Xenith and other worlds

Xozyn/Xozin (Pronounced as Sozin or Xozin): 36th hero and the new Ultimate Kaizer of Infinite Xabrez. Looks similar to his father (Xavier but has some qualities of his mother, Leia). Blue eyes with flaming red hair. Wears a crimson jacket (like Spectra from Bakugan) with the golden x symbol with the rainbow aura lining on the front and the symbol of the creation nation colored the rainbow aura with golden lining at the back of his jacket with swords coming out of it. Wears 2 hero bands that have evolved in order to wield all the magic of the worlds discovered and still does X symbol to unleash armored form similar to Xavier's with the powers of the Eternumh, creation nation, etc

Moncraft: These puffle monsters live in a minecraft like world, except it is not cubic but more like our world. In this case, it is more like the idea of how our world is really minecraft (a video game) and something we are playing in as NPCs or players but controlled by aliens or something. Anyway, these puffle monsters build worlds with unique characteristics, mods, magic, weapons, etc and make their own rules in their own spaces of magic known as a Moncraft cell where others can explore the worlds they made while making modifications and making their own world similar to it. Each world has their own infinite number of puffle monsters and their own forms of magic as well.

O.A.I (Orbital Omni Architect Infinity): Powerful custom puffle monsters that are usually black or grey in color, but when sparked with the Infinite Architect Orbital Satelite, it launches a powerful force of magic energy where they unleash their unique magic abilities granted the ability. They are extremely durable and strong, but their most unique character is their fast thought process (faster than light) and their reflexes as they can see the infinite combinations of attacks to defeat an opponent and perform those attacks making them almost undefeatable as they can also adapt to battles extremely quickly. Based on Kamen Rider Zero One Shining hopper and Assault Wolf.

KreeAavaros: There are 2 stars, the red stars (the heroes) and the dark stars (the dark twins of magic heroes as the antithesis of magic but purified by vestroia). The dark stars found powerful runes creating new magic spells and abilities causing a great a rebirth within them as they are now no longer just dark colors but have found their own puffle monsters creating an alternate universe altogether as they have their own origins, foundations of magic, spells, infinite forms of magic, abilities, cultures, architecture, etc. These puffle monsters are some of the most powerful when it comes to unleashing abilities. Ruled by the hero of the dark stars wielding the magic of the Crescent of Chao, they wield the magic of their ultra xenith as it stored all the infinite worlds of magic they have discovered as well.

Xædria/Xædrion: When the Crescent of Chaos fused with the Sol of Creation, the magic of Xozyn and Xardra (dark twin), fused causing the universes to fuse and open the gate to reveal magic of completely other universes showing Ultra xeniths of worlds of mostly water types or nature types with their own ideals, and magic abilities as well. These puffle monsters decided to completely fuse their great xenith symbol with Xozyn to create the ultimate fusion of magic and completely unite all magic together in order to create the largest hybrid variety ever!!

Corvus: Puffle monsters who use the power of the wild symbols of magic and runes to be able to master skills of magic. These puffle monsters are connected with nature and are granted unique magic skills based on the form of nature connected. These puffle monsters are wise in strategy and technique as well as usage of magic but also how to fully utilize and form a connection with the magic soul being used as source of power in order to evolve it further.

Based on Kamen Rider Zero One powers. These puffle monsters use magic souls of nature which grant them Z-move like abilities and magic Arkanon: Puffle monsters that unleash data from the ark, a mysterious data place loading magic and activate a forcerise (the evil version that the secret society of PV was creating to attack with technology of the Omnics) or an Arkrise unleashing a form of magic where combining their Ark core (ability card power) to the data of the satellite and surrounding nature unleashes a powerful new form of magic unleashing fusion abilities and ark abilities as well as many other new boosted abilities and attacks. These puffle monsters can also unleash omnic powers as they are extremely intelligent but have reached superiority but are controlled by the core of purity.

Pufflemon Battle Cardverse: Alternate reality where puffle monsters are a myth but magic exists in form of puffles that transform into monsters only in battle. Similar to arkanon but with more similarities to mecard. These puffles are normal shaped and move around normally all over the world in their natural habitats but can be tamed through the cards, allowing the wielder to have 5 cards controlling their magic abilities. Others can battle and claim the other puffle. During a battle, the puffle is thrown into the arena where it transforms into a monster (mecard).

GBA (GlobalGenesis Universal Battle Aurea): Powerful puffle monsters of a completely different form of magic (since the Sacred Core contains the symbol of all magic of the Xenith into one singular symbol of magic which is now within the Godzechs Heroband) as it uses energies and harmonies with the magic surroundings and perfect connections with certain arcanas of magic connected to each puffle monster. Languages as well provide unique spells and abilities as well as magic powers and runes. Based off of the Dragon Prince

UPS: Universal Police/Protection Squad; These puffle monsters wield gadgets that have the ability to defend others and not have to destroy anything (Based on Spies in Disguise). These puffle monsters travel the cosmos learning of other worlds out there and developing new weapons and magic abilities in order to defend others naturally. These elite puffle monsters are highly trained in their line of field allowing them to be exceptionally good at what they do. Each puffle monster has a tie and a badge allowing them to transform into their armored form and summon their gadgets and gear for battle through the hyperspace transporter (Based on Power rangers beast morphers)
